President's Message

Hello everyone,

I hope you all had an enjoyable and relaxing summer. Fall is coming our way, which means the CPRA Annual General Meeting (AGM) will be held and registration for programs will commence. Two months back was our inaugural neighbourhood back alley clean-up. I am proud to say the clean-up was a success, so we'll do it again next spring. We also need to refresh the ice rink boards with a coat of paint or two, and a team effort would be best.

The CPRA is a not-for-profit organization and we need volunteers to help coordinate programs and activities for our neighbourhood. I encourage you to attend the AGM, enjoy the free food, learn about CPRA initiatives, and how you may be able to help.

Sincerely,
Brent Wolfater

College Park Back Alley Clean-up Event was a huge success!

Huge kudos to everyone who so generously donated their time and vehicles to our first College Park Community Clean-up on Saturday, June 16! The amount of waste removed that day was 3,310 kgs; 12 tires were collected and taken to A1 tire for recycling; and one TV was taken to Sarcan to be recycled. A special thanks to Sarina Gersher, our area City of Saskatoon Councilor, who came out, rolled up her sleeves, and worked right along with us! A special thanks to Mark Planchot as without his guidance throughout the project, we would have had a few 'errors of omission'!! Those who donated the use of their trucks deserve a special 'shout-out': Brent Wolfater, Evan Sharp, Mark Shimell, and both Trevor and Marcie Allen! We also had help from a Saskatoon Air Cadet squadron! Our CPRA total costs were only $155.72, as many College Park area businesses contributed with donations! Of course, the biggest expense was shouldered by the City of Saskatoon, the Saskatoon Fire Department, and the Saskatchewan Health Region. We could not have mounted such an event without their support! See you next year!

New Class Being Offered!

Experiencing Canadian Culture for Immigrant Women: This class will welcome newcomer women with conversation, as well as speakers, about several aspects of Canadian culture. Participants will have the chance to get to know other women in the College Park community and to suggest topics of interest for the class. (Thursday evenings; beginning September 20, 6:30 – 7:30, ending in December)
